

Come join the SMTS Crew

Super Mario Toy Show aka SMTS is a YouTube channel that makes plush videos but I need help working with the camera, with acting, with casting and with writing scripts. I know it's a whole lot of work but if SMTS is a big hit in the YouTube community then everyone will enjoy the videos. I decided to do this out of inspiration of SML and I always wanted to make plush videos. I need your help to making this dream happen.

For those who want to do the jobs for fun has to be either high school students or college students and has to be about 17 or older to join and please either go on the SMTS website or contact me with my phone number or email address.

Also for those who want to subscribe to SMTS please either go to the website or the YouTube channel for further updates and new episodes.
